by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 17-1-301, is amended by deleting the section in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

(a)

(1) Each judge of a circuit, chancery, criminal, or other state trial court of record shall be elected to a full eight-year term of office by the qualified voters of the judicial district or circuit, to which the judge is to be assigned, in a contested election held at the regular August election in 2014 and at the regular August election recurring every eight (8) years thereafter.

(2) If a vacancy occurs during the term of office of any judge of a circuit, chancery, criminal, or other state trial court of record because of death, resignation, removal or other reason, then the remainder of the unexpired term shall be filled by the qualified voters of the judicial district or circuit in a contested election held at the next regular August election recurring more than thirty (30) days after the vacancy occurs. In the meantime, the governor shall appoint a person, who is fully qualified under the constitution and statutes of Tennessee, to discharge the duties of such office until the first day of September next succeeding the election.

(3) Each election for the office of judge of a circuit, chancery, criminal, or other state trial court of record shall be conducted in accordance with general election law set forth in title 2.

(4) Each judge of a circuit, chancery, criminal, or other state trial court of record shall be duly licensed to practice law in this state.

(1) Each judge of the supreme court or other state appellate court shall be elected to a full eight-year term of office by the qualified voters of the state in a contested election held at the regular August election in 2014 and at the regular August election recurring every eight (8) years thereafter.

(2) If a vacancy occurs during the term of office of any judge of the supreme court or other state appellate court because of death, resignation, removal or other reason, then the vacancy shall be filled, for the remainder of the unexpired term, by the qualified voters of the state in a contested election held at the next regular August election recurring more than thirty (30) days after the vacancy occurs. In accordance with Article VI, Sections 2 and 3 of the Constitution of Tennessee and §§ 16-3-101, 16-4-102, or 16-5-102, as the case may be, the vacancy shall be filled from the grand division or district of the state in which the vacancy occurs. In the meantime, the governor shall appoint a person, who is fully qualified under the constitution and statutes of Tennessee, to discharge the duties of such office until the first day of September next succeeding the election.

(3) Each election for the office of judge of the supreme court or other state appellate court shall be conducted in accordance with general election law set forth in title 2. In accordance with § 2-13-203, each political party may nominate a candidate for election to each such office; and in accordance with § 2-5-101, independent candidates may also qualify for each such office.

(4) Each judge of the supreme court or other state appellate court shall be duly licensed to practice law in this state.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 17, Chapter 4, is amended by deleting the chapter in its entirety.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2009, the public welfare requiring it.
